TWO MIGHTY ARMIES.

Tammany's Disciplined Forces Command the Confidence of Voters.

Candidate Scott's Promises to Annexed District Voters.

K. of L. Leaders Dig Up the Hatchet for Gorman and Dunphy.

Very little money is offered on the result of next Tuesday's election, but what there is offered on the success of Tammany's ticket, and naturally the betting odds are in favor of Tammany at from 10 to 8 to 2 to 1.

The reason is that Tammany is in possession of the administration and controls an organized and well-disciplined army, to which is opposed a lot of unorganized and undisciplined recruits.

These advantages, together with the air of confidence which surrounds every Tammany Hall politician, have influenced the betting. But as yet professional gamblers are shy of raising their capital on the result.

A statement which has seemed to cheer the supporters of Tammany is that hundreds of disgruntled Republicans have announced their intention to vote against the Fusion nominees and for Mayor Grant.

Many will do this and openly say so, but that their number is greater than usual is denied by the Republican leaders.

"If Republicans are dissatisfied," said ex-Police Justice Patterson, "they would have registered. The fact is, however, that the full Republican vote is required, and it is going to be cast for the Anti-Tammany ticket."

GORMAN'S TACTIC IN THE THIRTIETH. Mr. Patterson is probably in error as to the Eighteenth, Thirtieth and Twentieth Assembly Districts, where many Republicans are registered who will vote for Mayor Grant; or, if they do not vote the Tammany ticket, will cast a ballot which will practically count for Tammany.

This is said to be particularly the case in the Thirtieth District, where "Wicked Fred Goby" is accused of circulating a resolute ticket of a straight Republican sort, on which his name and that of his candidate for Alderman, with Judge Earl's, are the only ones which have been certified by a political convention as candidates.

It is, it is said, will not himself vote for Mayor Grant, but will assist him by getting his friends to vote this year's ballot, on which the name of another appears as the candidate for Mayor.

By supporting Republican candidates, it is asserted that the 200 Assembly claims he will preserve his standing as a Republican and prove himself a better one than those who will vote for him with his five Democratic candidates. The "One" will pose as an uncompromising Republican.

SCOTT IN THE ANNEXED DISTRICT. Mayorality Candidate Scott is a shrewd politician and every step in touch with his friends and every move which he makes is skilfully planned. He does to half dozen different meetings every night, he has to exercise a great deal of ingenuity to say the right thing in the right place and not get his speeches mixed.

He spoke last night at Norbach's Hall, at One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Street and Third Avenue.

He struck the keynote, "said a P. M. L. man from about the middle of the crowd, the matter to-day. Tammany Hall has promised all sorts of improvements for our section of the city, but they never performed their promises, and we are only too willing to hear promises from another quarter, hoping that they may be fulfilled."

Mr. Scott understands the situation and has not let the opportunity pass. He addressed those who will promise to give as much needed public improvements, and give us some evidence of his intention to perform as he has promised, can come pretty near carrying the vote of the Twenty-fourth Assembly District.

ENIGMS OPPOSING DUNPHY AND GORMAN. The Knights of Labor are making a determined fight against two Tammany candidates, Police Justice John J. Gorman and Sheriff and Edward J. Dunphy for Congress in the Seventh District.

A mass-meeting will be held by District Assembly 44 at Cooper Union to-morrow night, at which the two candidates will be denounced as foes of organized labor.

This movement, they say, has the sanction of the supreme authority of the order, and this morning William MacNair, Secretary of D. A. 44, received a telegram from General Master Workman Powderly announcing that he will be present at the meeting.

We will endorse no candidate," said Secretary MacNair. "We are simply against Gorman and Dunphy, and we are laboring men to vote against them. Who they do vote for is a matter of indifference so long as they defeat these two foes of labor."

GOOD WORDS FOR MAYOR GRANT. Ex-Commissioner Andrew H. Green, whose help in overthrowing the Tweed ring is still remembered with gratitude, called on Mayor Grant this morning and promised him his hearty support for reelection.

"You have done very well, indeed, Mr. Mayor," was the old reformer's greeting to the young Tammany Executive.

FATHER DUCY NOT CROOKED. A story which gained some credence to-day was to the effect that Rev. Father Ducey, who in the past has been charged with the P. M. L. movement at Cooper Union, had received orders from the Archbishop not to appear on the stage. Father Ducey would not deny the story, but said that he would deliver the lecture as advertised.

CAMPBELL PICKET FIRING. The Second District Tammany organization is negotiating for a picket line at Bowery Theatre, in which to hold a ratification meeting next Sunday night.

Congressman MacNair, however, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, declared that he would not allow the House of Representatives will have a Democratic majority at least this time.

REPUBLICAN COLUMNISTS DETECTED. Tammany charged the Republican party with violation of the law in securing hundreds to register fraudulently in different Assembly districts, notably the Fifth and Seventh.

Judge Peter Mitchell, the Tammany leader in the Fifth, said this morning that fully five hundred Republican candidates have been discovered in that district and most of them he would be allowed to vote.

Variances are out for many of them already," said Judge Mitchell. "They are in the hands of Police Captain Thompson, who, in those precincts the illegal registration has been done."

"If it would not defeat the ends of justice," he said, "I would have had the names of the columnists against whom warrants have been issued, and would have had them arrested. These columnists are not registered from lodgings, but from private residences, and furnished names, and in almost every instance the head of the house where they are supposed to reside is instructed to answer all inquiries with reference to their residence in the affirmative."

Notwithstanding all the efforts that have been made to discover the names of the columnists, and these illegal votes will never be cast.

DEATH OF THE COUNT D'AX

The Duke D'Ax's Brother Passes Away at the Pavilion Hotel.

He Had Come to this Country in Pursuit of Health.

Count D'Ax came to New Brighton from Belgium last May in company with the Duke and Duchess D'Ax and their little daughter and maid.

The Count, who was a younger brother of the Duke, had for some time been suffering from gastritis, and his journey to America and sojourn at Staten Island was principally for the benefit of his health.

The trip of the Duke and Duchess, however, is said to have been purely of a business nature. The Duchess D'Ax is an American lady, and when she married the Duke several years ago was the widow of the well-known New York merchant, Robert Souter, whose death left her to a vast amount of property located in New York and also in Belgium.

The estate became involved in litigation and it was not long before the Duke and Duchess were obliged to leave the country and settle up the estate that the Duchess and her husband came to America.

Count D'Ax was born in Belgium, June 8, 1867, and was unmarried.

He is said to have been the owner of a large estate in his own right, while his brother, the Duke, it is said, has little wealth outside of what he obtained through his marriage with Mrs. Souter.

The Count D'Ax has another brother, Count Albert D'Ax, who is a Lieutenant of Cavalry in the Belgian Army.

Count D'Ax's death was sudden and occurred last night at the Pavilion Hotel, where he had been for some time.

Recently he contracted a severe cold, but was up and around the hotel until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he went to his room and retired.

Somebody who saw him last night at the hotel said that he appeared to be in good health, but that he was a little out of sorts.

Dr. J. G. Clarke, of West New Brighton, who has been attending to him, said that he died of pneumonia.

The funeral of the dead Count will be held at the Pavilion Hotel to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

For the first time since the trial began Judge Cowing was present in the courtroom. He had been absent for some time, but he had been ill.

He looked pale and drowsy. There is nothing left about his personal appearance to suggest that he is a man of the law.

He had been in the courtroom for some time, but he had been ill.

ACTOR CRUMLEY'S FATE.

His Case Goes to the Jury This Afternoon.

His Wife Faints During the Summing Up by Lawyer Howe.

An hour before Judge Cowing took his seat on the bench in Part I. Court of General Sessions, this morning, the room was crowded by eager men and women, anxious to witness the closing scenes in the trial of the actor, Charles Crumley, or Webster.

The clean-shaven old actor, whose face bears a great resemblance to that of the late Jerry Hartigan, was brought down from the Tombs at 10.30 A.M. by Deputy Sheriff William B. Smith, and he was taken to the courtroom by the elevator.

When passing through the court he carefully avoided the flashing eyes of Mrs. McNeill, mother of the murdered man, who glared at him with a look of hate from the moment he was brought into the room until he disappeared into the confines of the prisoner's pen.

Ever since the trial opened she has been on hand the first one, rain or shine every morning, to see how the evidence was being presented. Occasionally when she has missed the full import of a witness's answer she would inquire of those about her what it was.

Whatever the sins of the son may have been, the mother's love has outweighed all. She has been on hand every morning, to see how the evidence was being presented.

She had been in the courtroom for some time, but she had been ill.
